

Workers Rights are Human Rights!

End Labour Exploitation & Trafficking in BC

Canada is a destination country for labour trafficking.
Join us & learn how to take action to end labour exploitation & trafficking in BC.

DINNER WITH KEYNOTE BY VELMA VELORIA
and a special presentation by Dennis Kusin

THUR NOV 16 Doors Open 6pm Dinner 7pm
FRASERVIEW BANQUET HALL 8240 Fraser Street Vancouver
TICKETS sliding scale $50 suggested amount

All proceeds to Leticia Sarmiento, whose court case brought public attention to labour trafficking in BC.

Velma Veloria is a former Washington State Representative instrumental in passing legislation that made human trafficking a crime at the state level. She is also a long-time labour & community organizer and is part of Filipinos Against Violence, Seattle.

For tickets and to RSVP, please contact Bootz at 604.441.0795
or visit bit.ly/2yW8AG4

Organized by the West Coast Domestic Workers Association, Migrante BC, Lawyers Rights Watch Canada and Vancouver & District Labour Council