

2015 EFM Day of Reflection

"Mystics and the Mind:
Towards an Understanding of Interfaith Spirituality" with Laura Duhan Kaplan.

Join fellow EFMrs, old and new, as Rabbi Dr. Kaplan speaks about “a spiritual basis for interfaith understanding found in mysticism and depth psychology”. There are common dimensions to the human encounter with the Divine that these disciplines describe and that find expression in our religious traditions and theologies.
